

↑FLAP↑

3.5" x 6" Open Side

↑FLAP↑

A diagram of a rectangular flap, likely for a book cover or folder. The flap is outlined in magenta and has a central opening. The opening is defined by two diagonal lines meeting at a point in the center, and two curved lines forming the top and bottom edges of the opening. The top edge of the flap is curved, and the bottom edge is also curved. The label '↑FLAP↑' is positioned at the top center of the flap, with two blue arrows pointing upwards towards the top edge of the flap.
